

Welcome

Niamh Donegan
Manager, An Grianán

An Grianán, 'the sunny place', is an unique experience in Ireland and is open all year round and all are welcome to enjoy a daily, midweek or weekend holiday where you can participate in a course, an activity or rest and enjoy our fabulous hospitality in comfortable surroundings, with caring and friendly staff.

It is a charming manor house neatly sandwiched between the long sandy beaches of County Louth and the Boyne

Valley area, with all its historic sites and the bustling shopping town of Drogheda, only six miles away. Outdoor facilities include two beautiful all-weather tennis courts which can be used by our visitors and a short walk will take you from the sandy beaches of Baltray and Seapoint.

We are always delighted to welcome groups and organisations from every background for conferences, meetings and team building outings. Our aim is to facilitate change and growth for all, women and men alike, through lifelong learning. Our mission is to empower and validate individuals through our courses and our culture of mutual support. All our staff look forward to meeting and greeting you, especially our Manager, Niamh Donegan.

About An Grianán

An Grianán is of immense historical significance with its original form dating back over 220 years ago. This college was the first residential adult education centre in Ireland and has its roots in the Irish Countrywomen's Association - the oldest and largest Women's Association in Ireland.

This beautiful stately home was built in the 18th Century by the McClintock family and called Newtown House. In 1852 it was sold to a Drogheda merchant and shipbuilder called Ralph Smyth and in the early 1920's it was bought by Helen Lentaigne, who allowed the newly constituted Irish Countrywomen's Association to use Newtown House as a venue for one of the first ICA Summer Schools during the 1930's. In July 1945 Mrs Lentaigne sold Newtown House to the Irish Tourist Board, who renovated the premises and opened the house as Tearman Hotel.

The seeds of An Grianán, were sown in 1952, when Muriel Gahan of the ICA proposed the idea for a residential college for social and educational purposes to Dr Morris, of the WK Kellogg Foundation of America, through a chance introduction. It was purchased and entrusted for the benefit of the people of Ireland. In October 1954 it was officially opened by the then President of Ireland Seán T O'Kelly. Dr Donal O'Sullivan, Director of Folk Music and Song at UCD and Trinity College conducted the first course.

Everyone is welcome - men and women, members and non - members. Many organisations find the space and atmosphere of the establishment ideal for meetings or conferences.

An Grianán makes learning a delightful experience in a relaxed atmosphere. The extensive grounds that surround the college provide a wealth of walks, with the opportunity to stretch your legs as you take a leisurely stroll around the grounds, or enjoy a walk along the sandy beaches of Baltray and Seapoint.

Co Louth and the Boyne Valley

– What to see and do!

Boyne Valley is the birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East and has some of the world's most mythical landscapes. The rich valley is home to a range of heritage sites and monuments including Europe's largest Anglo-Norman Castle. Nearby Drogheda is one of the oldest towns in Ireland, known for its tourism and as a centre of industry and medical care. It is located on the Dublin-Belfast corridor on the east coast of Ireland, 49 km north of Dublin, 58km south of Newry. Make Co Louth your destination with an impressive coastline – stretching over 90km from Carlingford Lough to the beaches of Baltray.

Top 10 things to do in the Boyne Valley Area & Co. Louth
