

THE ALL IRELAND HOME COOK CHAMPION 2017

“Creativity with Irish Ingredients”

The Irish Shows Association are delighted to announce the venues for the live amateur cooking competition “The All Ireland Home Cook Champion “2017. The Competition will be run in association with the Irish Countrywoman’s Association (ICA).

Competitors can apply through their local ICA Guild, through their local regional agricultural show or the following websites www.ica.ie, www.irishshows.org or www.chefadrian.ie.

After an evaluation process finalists will then cook off live at six national shows, 5 regional finals and The All Ireland Final.

The Competition tag line is “Creativity with Irish Ingredients”

The competition will be run alongside cooking demonstrations by TV3 and RTE chef Adrian Martin (Chef Adrian). The cooking demonstrations and live cooking competition will take place alongside an artisan food village. Ingredients for the live cook offs will be revealed to the competitors 10 days before each regional final.

The prizes for the All Ireland Finalists this year are as follows.

Winner €1000

Second €500

Third, Fourth, Fifth, and sixth €200

The Six shows that will Host “The All Ireland Home Cook Champion” 2017 are:

Region	Show	Date
Northern region.	Ballymoney Show, Co. Antrim	Friday and Saturday 2 nd and 3 rd June
Southern Region.	Clonakilty Show, Co. Cork	Sunday 11 th June
Eastern region.	Bannow and Rathangan Show, Co. Wexford	Thursday 13 th July
Midlands Region.	Oldcastle Show, Co. Meath	Sunday 16 th July
Western Region.	Clonmany Show, Co. Donegal	Tuesday 8 th August
Grand Final.	Iverk Show, Co. Kilkenny	Saturday 26 th August

For further details contact John Martin of Martin Event Management on 087-2681635 or email johnmartinevent@gmail.com

